

Virginia Woolf

(1882-1941)

http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Virginia_Woolf

“A Room of One’s Own”

http://www.wwnorton.com/college/english/nael/victorian/topic_2/illustrations/imellis.htm

http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Virginia_Woolf

Question

- What is the meaning of the title of this piece?

Question

- What, according to Woolf, would happen to Shakespeare's sister, if there had been such a woman? And why?

Question

- In which ways is “Chloe liked Olivia” significant for Woolf? What has been the disservice done by the male writers to women? What might a female writer write about women?

Question

- Why is it necessary for a writer, according to Woolf, to have androgynous mind?